HARASSMENT AND BULLYING POLICY

Our goal at BHS is to provide an environment free of all forms of harassment. Sexual harassment, sexual intimidation, bullying, cyberbullying, general harassment, intimidating, and hazing of any form has a detrimental effect on the lives and/or education of students and employees. Therefore, it is the policy of Bandon School District to maintain learning and working environments free from all types of discrimination including all forms of harassment and intimidation. The complete Sexual Harassment Policy and Bullying Policy are available for review in the school office and on the school web page. These policies cover all forms of harassment (including with electronic devices). Our building administrator and Title IX Coordinator should be contacted for issues related to harassment/bullying.
